RESEARCH PARTICIPANT Consent Form

Health Patterns of Medical Students Before and After Matriculation to Medical School.

You are invited to be in a research study of seeking to understand the influence of sleep and exercise patterns on physical, mental health, and academic success. We ask that you read this form and ask any questions you may have before agreeing to be in the study. Your participation is entirely voluntary.

This study is being conducted by Bryan Daines, Blake Mckinley, Kayd Pulsipher, and Mitchell Allen, students at Rocky Vista University. Under the direction of Ben Wilde, Department Vice Chair of Clinical Medicine, Rocky Vista University.

Purpose of Study

The purpose of this study is to understand the influence of sleep and exercise patterns on physical and mental health and performance of medical students at RVU, comparing pre-medical school to that of medical school. You were selected as a prospective participant in this study because you are a student at Rocky Vista University.

Procedures

If you agree to be in this study, we will ask you to do the following things:

You as a participant will be asked to truthfully complete multiple surveys throughout the year. You as a participant will be individually identified via email to track individual progression.

Duration

Participation in the study involves the following time commitment:

Completion of each survey will take an estimated time of 5-10 minutes. You as a participant will be asked to complete a survey in September 2020, in January 2021, and June 2021.

Risks and Benefits of Being in the Study

The study involves the following foreseeable risks and/or discomforts:

There is very low risk for you as a participant in this study. We will be identifying participants by obtaining an email address. This will allow us to send follow up surveys to track individual change in students. We will also be asking about medical conditions and class rank. However, these results will be kept confidential, and Dr. Wilde will be the only researcher with the email associated with your answer responses.

The benefits to participation are:

The results of this study could better help students identify their current health patterns; and possibly correct these patterns to positively impact future academic performance, and long-term mental and physical health. These results could help identify risk factors for medical students before matriculation medical school.

Compensation and/or Costs

There will be no compensation for your participation in this study, but your help is appreciated by the researchers.

Confidentiality

Participation in research may involve some loss of privacy; however, the researchers will make every effort to ensure that information about you remains confidential. Your identity will not be revealed in any publications, presentations, or reports resulting from this research study. However, it may be possible for someone to recognize your particular story/situation/response. Student researchers will be unable to have access to the email responses by the participants, therefore eliminating the possibility of your specific name associated to your responses.

We will collect your information through a survey via Survey Monkey, which is an online survey development cloud-based software company. This information/data will be stored and safeguarded by a password protected, cloud-based storage system.

Your identifiable private information collected as part of the research will not be used or distributed for future studies.

Please print your name as consent to participate in this survey:
