

Table S 1. Example of how DSM-diagnoses were harmonized into DSM-5 diagnostic classes.

Raw data Diagnosis with subtype and specifiers	Step 1 Diagnosis without subtype and specifiers	Step 2 DSM-5 diagnostic class
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Major depressive disorder, single episode, mild • Major depressive disorder, recurrent episode, severe with psychotic features • Persistent depressive disorder (dysthymic disorder), early onset • Persistent depressive disorder (dysthymic disorder), with atypical features 	Major depressive disorder Persistent depressive disorder	Depressive disorders