Supplementary Material 4: Factors influencing the implementation of the new regulations to reduce antibiotic use in chicken production in Vietnam from respondent's perspectives from semi-structured interviews (n=39) 2021, Vietnam. MARD: Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development; DAH: Department of Animal Health; DLP: Department of Livestock Production; SubDAHLP: Subdepartment of Animal Health and Livestock Production; DARD: Department of Agriculture and Rural Development;

	Main barriers						Main enablers
Stakeholder	Level of	Technical	Conflict of	Scale-related	Technical	Informal	Stakeholder's	International	Consumers	Reducing knowledge	guidance	economic	management	and	distribution	perceptions	influence	demand	the interest	discrepancies	financial	channels			for food	burden
					capacities				safety	of ABR
Public sector
Government authorities
DAH/DLP
SubDAHLP
DARD
Veterinary district station
Communal veterinarian
National Research Centers
Private sector
National private actors
Feed company
Alternative feed additives company
Importer
Producer/Distributor
Technician company
Local private actors
Agency level 1 and 2
Private veterinarian
Users
Integrated farm
Family commercial farm
Household
International partners										