

S2 Table. Profiles of 15 Participants in the Qualitative Study

No.	Gender	OHQ subjective scale score	DASS-21 results	Occupational engagement and mental health status (from interviews and a focus group discussion)
A	Female	78.4	Normal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Lacked motivation and planning for study, had challenges in the internship, stayed up late and lacked exercise, limited social activity but got along well with family members</li> <li>b. Felt isolated and bored, worried about taking exams, hard to concentrate</li> </ul>
B	Male	72.8	Normal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Had nothing to do at home, hard to complete assignments at school</li> <li>b. Felt bored and annoyed, anxious about academic pressure</li> </ul>
C	Female	71.2	Normal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Lack of planning and stayed up late to work on assignments, excessive entertainment at home, lacked exercise</li> <li>b. Enjoyed leisure time but felt stressed and anxious about studying, worried about physical health</li> </ul>
D	Female	77.6	Normal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Very busy completing coursework and stayed up late, addicted to smartphones during home isolation, lack of exercise</li> <li>b. Felt lonely and stressed about study</li> </ul>
E	Female	61.6	Mild anxiety	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Lack of planning and procrastinated in research, stayed up late,</li> <li>b. Felt lonely and anxious about meeting graduation requirements</li> </ul>
F	Female	73.6	Normal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Canceled an overseas exchange plan, stayed up late and busy with research projects at school, lacked exercise</li> <li>b. Felt a bit depressed but enjoyed time with family members during home isolation, felt anxious about academic competition</li> </ul>

G	Female	53.6	Mild anxiety	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Had nothing to do at home, spent time on screen over 10 h/d, had conflicts with parents and ran away from home</li> <li>b. Felt meaningless and anxious, worried about the graduate entrance exam</li> </ul>
H	Female	77.6	Normal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Bauge-watching and staying up late during home isolation, lack of planning for further education</li> <li>b. Felt lonely at home, and very regretful about her academic failure</li> </ul>
I	Female	65.6	Severe anxiety, mild depression, mild stress	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Canceled plans to study abroad, ate too much fast food, had difficulty connecting with others</li> <li>b. Felt devastated, isolated, and worried about her health and family members</li> </ul>
J	Male	51.2	Normal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Slept too much (over 10-11h/d), lack of planning and was unable to work on the research project, limited participation in collective activities</li> <li>b. Felt afraid and worried about graduation</li> </ul>
K	Female	47.2	Severe anxiety, severe depression, mild stress	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Bauge-reading and staying up late all night during home isolation, lack of motivation to study, limited communication with others</li> <li>b. Felt depressed, had suicidal thoughts</li> </ul>
L	Male	70.4	Normal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Lacked clear goals and plans for study, canceled travel plans, irregular sleep pattern</li> <li>b. Felt anxious about future</li> </ul>
M	Female	79.2	Normal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Conctrented on graduation thesis, participated in some leisure activities (e.g., watching movies, jigsaw puzzles)</li> <li>b. Felt balanced and peaceful</li> </ul>

N	Female	62.4	Severe anxiety, severe depression, moderate stress	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Slept and rested over 12 h/d, read many books at home, lack of planning and had difficulty working on thesis</li> <li>b. Enjoyed life at home but felt anxious and stressed after returning to school</li> </ul>
O	Female	75.2	Normal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Canceled plans to study abroad, had difficulty finding a job, concentrated on study and work, regular exercise, got along well with family members</li> <li>b. Felt miserable and unclear about future plans initially but got back to normal soon</li> </ul>

---

OHQ: The Occupational Harmony Questionnaire, DASS-21: The Depression Anxiety Stress Scale. Participant experience content areas. a: Characteristics of occupational engagement; b: Overall statement on mental health. Participants A to K participated in individual interviews. Participants L to O participated in a focus group discussion.